

St-Caradec / Loudéac

Carhaix to St-Méen-le-Grand - Cycle Route 6 in Brittany

First, following the Tranchée de Pestuan, a lovely water channel flanked by a path (and part of the longer Rigole d'Hilvern Channel running parallel to the Canal de Nantes à Brest), there's quite a shift in altitude, of 35m (over 100 feet). Then the landscapes alternate between agricultural fields and wind farms producing green energy. Enjoy the pretty flora along this greenway.

The route

A short stage, the way well surfaced and separated from motorized traffic.
