Thématique
Canals & intimate rivers

This EuroVelo 6 stage in Alsace leads you via the Ill Valley to the town of Illfurth. Along this stretch, you follow the cycle path along the Canal du Rhône au Rhin, passing authentic little places, each offering a tempting gastronomic stop. To the south, discover the delightful area of Sundgau via the alternative routes on offer. The cycling is easy.

Route

The route through Mulhouse is still being laid out, so take care on the link through town. From the station, signposts lead you to the park by the Ill River, near a campsite; then a pedestrian bridge takes you across the river to join the canal. The cycle path continues beside the canal.

Note the alternative cycling circuits signposted « Sundgau à vélo », one leading to the charming town of Altkirch.

Don't miss

Mulhouse: for its nice historic centre, plus it's home to many events and museums - the town prides itself on being European capital of technological museums (on cars, trains, motorbikes, electricity, etc). Many shops and services available.

Zillisheim: a deeply historic village.

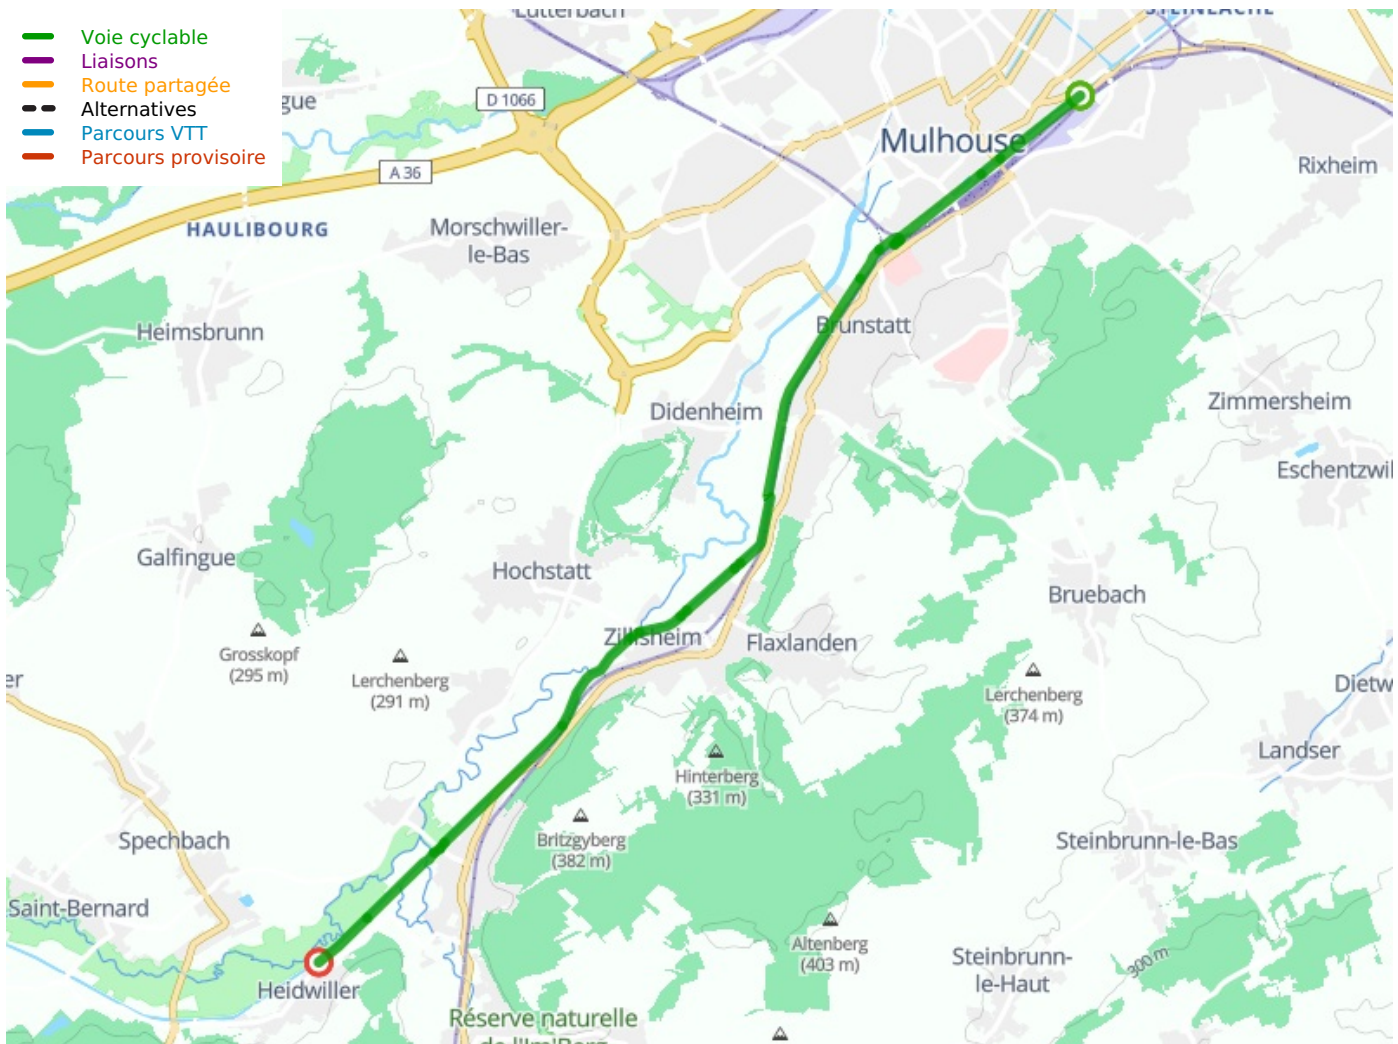

Illfurth: the lively historic town; St Martin's Church.
