Thématique
Nature & small heritage

In the département (or county) of Haute-Savoie, La Belle Via cycle route (V62) will, once complete, start in Seyssel, a town straddling both banks of the Upper Rhône, and will also link up with the ViaRhôna cycle route. It will then lead to La Balme-de-Sillingy, at time of writing our recommended starting point to head off to Annecy, an enchanting historic town crisscrossed by canals.

The Route

At time of writing, the cycle route begins at La Balme-de-Sillingy. Starting from the car park at the Lac de la Balme, La Belle Via (V62) guides cyclists to Sillingy, Chaumontet and Epagny via a network of small roads and paths shared between riders and pedestrians before you enter the town of Annecy.
