

Beaulieu-sur-Loire / Briare

La Loire à Vélo - Loire Valley by bike

Travel by waterway has pride of place along this beautiful stretch of the Loire à Vélo. The highlight is Mantelot Lock by Châtillon-sur-Loire, where boats once gathered to cross the Loire, before the construction of the canal-bridge at nearby Briare. Lock and canal-bridge are both splendid constructions not to be missed. This section is easy, mainly on greenways.

Route

Choose between two routes from Beaulieu-sur-Loire to Châtillon-sur-Loire, one along the river's east bank, via Bonny-sur-Loire and Ousson-sur-Loire, the other via the west bank and the Ecluse de Mantelot, passing between the Loire and its parallel Canal Latéral.

Don't miss

Beaulieu-sur-Loire: extraordinary pyramidal barns; its section of the Canal Latéral à la Loire; the local vineyards

Bonny-sur-Loire: the fortified old town and St Aignan Church; its islands on the Loire

Ousson-sur-Loire: an historic village with picturesque lanes, plus the promenade beside the Loire

Châtillon-sur-Loire: once an important port along the Loire, with the beautiful Mantelot Lock set beside the river

Briare: its famed canal-bridge designed by Eiffel; its lively, appealing marina; the Musée des Deux Marines and Musée du Pont-Canal, dedicated to waterways; the Musée de la Mosaïque et des Emaux, plus the mosaics of St Etienne Church; the Château de Trousse-Barrière
