Don't leave La Flèche without a visit to the famous zoo. Children can even try their hands at being a keeper for a day – what an experience! La Flèche is recognised as one of Europe's most beautiful zoos, and is the subject of a popular French TV series. See the stars of the show in the flesh! Then, follow the family-friendly green lane towards Baugé-en-Anjou to be transported back in time to the days of medieval knights. Park your bike at the convenient "bike stop" by the castle. Don't miss the apothecary's shop at the Hôtel-Dieu, the old hospital. The shelves of carefully worked jars create a fascinating and evocative atmosphere, even though some of the contents sound a bit grim to us today! Wander around the old part of the town and enjoy a relaxing evening in this Petite Cité de Caractère® with its typical Angevin charm.

The route

On the green asphalted road for 4 km from the old station of La Flèche. Coating in stabilized then until Baugé-en-Anjou.
