

Blain / Nort-sur-Erdre

La Vélodyssée, the Atlantic Cycling Route

This is the last, very easy going and enjoyable stage of La Vélodyssée along the Nantes to Brest canal. The Bout-de-Bois Pond or the Chevallerai woods make two very timely stops for weary cyclists.

Itinerary

Very easy going, designated cycle lanes. Careful when crossing the RD 164 and RD 16.

Connection

Nort-sur-Erdre, by the Quiheix Lock. After 1 km, follow signposts left towards Poupinière. A footbridge takes you across the Grande Douve. Cross through agricultural farmland then take small lanes until you reach Nort-sur-Erdre.
