Canals & intimate rivers

La Voie Bleue cycle route leaves Auxonne's fortifications behind, taking you via quiet little roads through the Burgundy countryside. You now encounter the EuroVelo 6 cycle route, and the Canal du Rhône au Rhin, which leads you gently back to the banks of the Saône. Following the east bank, as you come up to St-Jean-de-Losne, you get a wonderful view onto this port with its fine riverside quays. This makes for an unmissable stop along the route.

The route

The cycle route follows the towpath up to the intersection with the D31 road at the level of Les Maillys. Then it's small country roads until you encounter the EuroVelo 6 cycle route running alongside the Canal du Rhône au Rhin after Samerey. La Voie Bleue then leads on to Saint-Jean-de-Losne.
