Thématique
Nature & small heritage

The peregrination continues, undulating as it winds its way through the meanders of the Loir. The nautical base of Villiers-sur-Loir, at the beginning of the stage, is a great opportunity to refresh yourself before cutting through the Vendôme countryside. Montoire-sur-le-Loir, a city with a dense medieval heritage and ancient houses grazing the river, will be the stopover town on the route.

The route

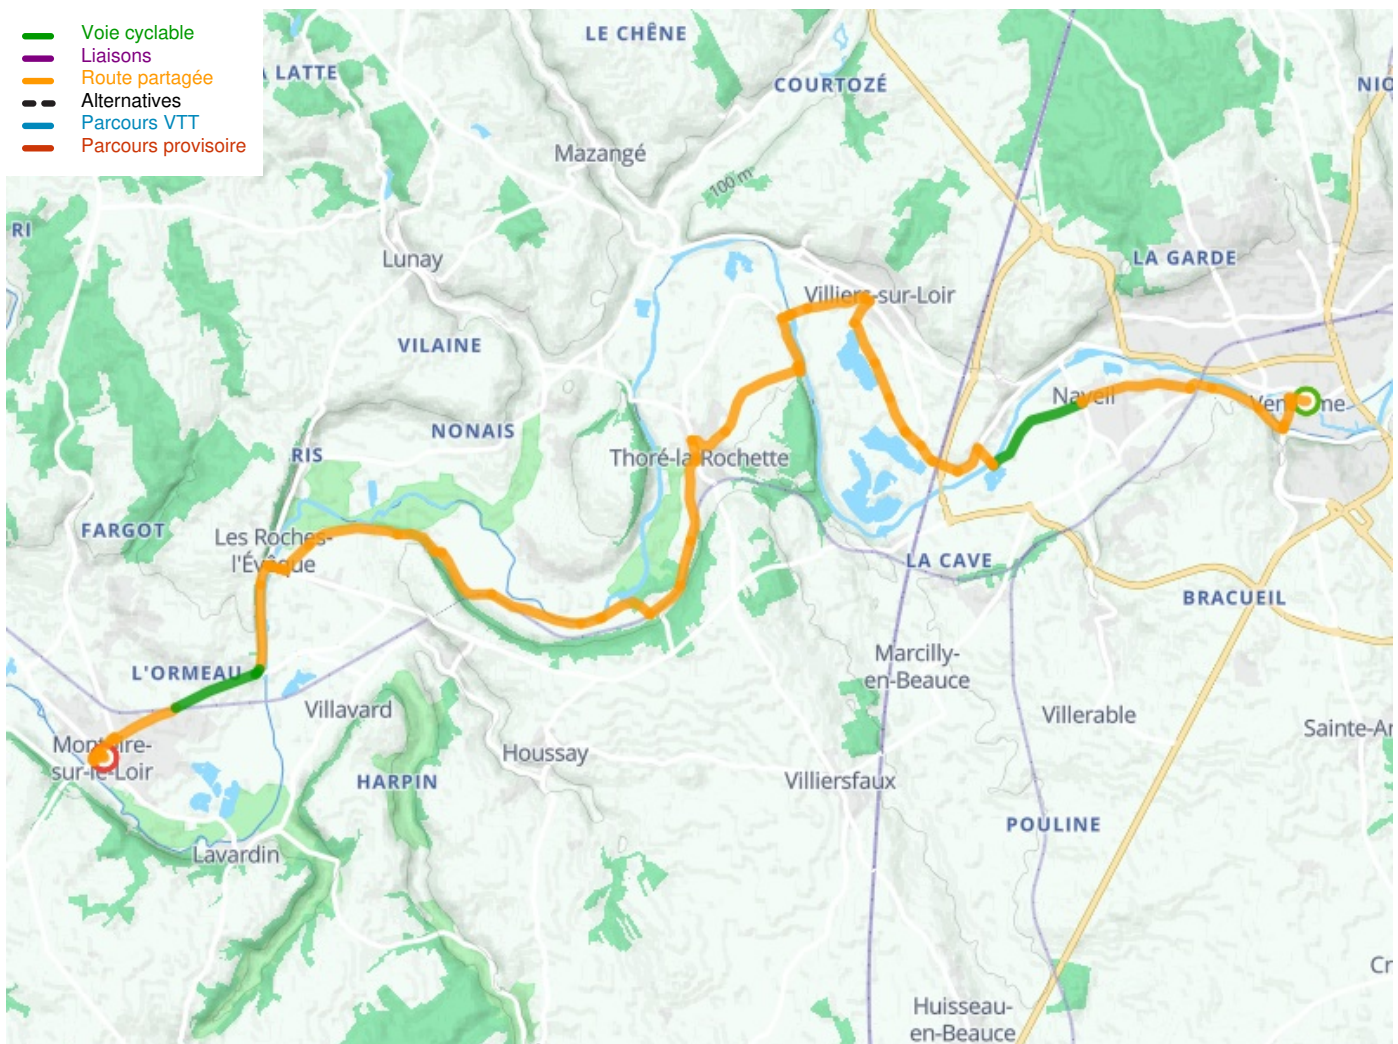

On small roads marked "Saint-Jacques by bike". Careful 4 km from the finish in Montoire-sur-le-Loir, the stage ends on the D917B and then the D917, with traffic that may be relatively dense. Common stage with the itinerary of the Loir Valley by bike (double signposting).
