

Ploërmel / Questembert

Saint-Malo to Rhuys - Cycle Route 3 in Brittany

Leaving from beside the Lac au Duc at Ploërmel, this high greenway offers magnificent views down on verdant valleys. At several points you can spot the Canal de Nantes à Brest, almost playing hide-and-seek with you! The surface is smooth, allowing you to cycle along with ease, taking in the country views. A stage suitable for all cyclists.

The route

At the entrance to Questembert, a cycling link is being created to take you into the centre of town. For the time being, and despite a rather long slope, best stay on the main road and aim for the town spire to get into town.

Between Mauron and Questembert, the greenway has relais-rando stops offering amenities (toilets, taps, sheltered picnic tables).
