

Gisors / St-Germer-de-Fly

The Avenue Verte London <-> Paris

Leaving Gisors, the tiny roads follow the Epte Valley between the wooded hills of Vexin. You will then travel between peat lands, wet meadows and limestone meadows covered with large numbers of orchids in spring.

The Oise and the Normandy tracks converge to a single main track close to the famous abbey of Saint-Germer-de-Fly.

The cycle route

Course on small roads overlooking the valley with some good coastlines as we approach Neuf-Marché. Be careful on the D 17 at Sérifontaine.

SNCF railway stations

Numerous Transilien trains from Paris-St-Lazare via Conflans-Sainte-Honorine and Pontoise: Gisors (1h15').
