Canals & intimate rivers

From one shore to the other follow picturesque villages and magnificent homes overlooking the River, as the Château de Menars which became in 1760 the property of Madame de Pompadour, and its terraced gardens built in the 18th century by Marigny: superb! Landscapes, light and elegant, will delight all visitors seeking nature, who will discover new way "the last wild river in Europe". Open the eye: Beaver, nutria, herons and cormorants are here!

Departure proposed : Blois

A bicycle tour on a greenway on the left bank of the Loire river and on quiet road on the right bank of the Loire. Very nice views from the two sides.
