

Férel / Penestin

The Coastal cycle path in Brittany

While awaiting a fuller connection to other Breton routes, from Férel (west of La Roche-Bernard on the Vilaine River), a slightly hilly cycle route takes you along quiet roads and tracks to Pénestin at the Vilaine's estuary. The Pointe du Scal Headland makes for a particularly special stop on this stage split between countryside, riverbanks and the ocean's edge.

Cycle route

On signposted, quiet roads with some stretches along tracks. A few portions are shared with a hiking trail. Around Camoël, there are some quite hilly stretches; also note the narrow stretch passing through Le Haut-Pénestin.
