A stage giving you a condensed summary of the Thiérache area's delights, with its fortified churches, green meadows and unspoilt brick villages. All the way along, remarkably beautiful fortified churches alternate with stretches of pastureland. The end of the stage produces highlights in the form of Beaurain's magnificent fortified church and the town of Guise, dominated by its impressive medieval keep and home to the progressive cooperative housing project, the 19th-century Familistère Godin.

The route

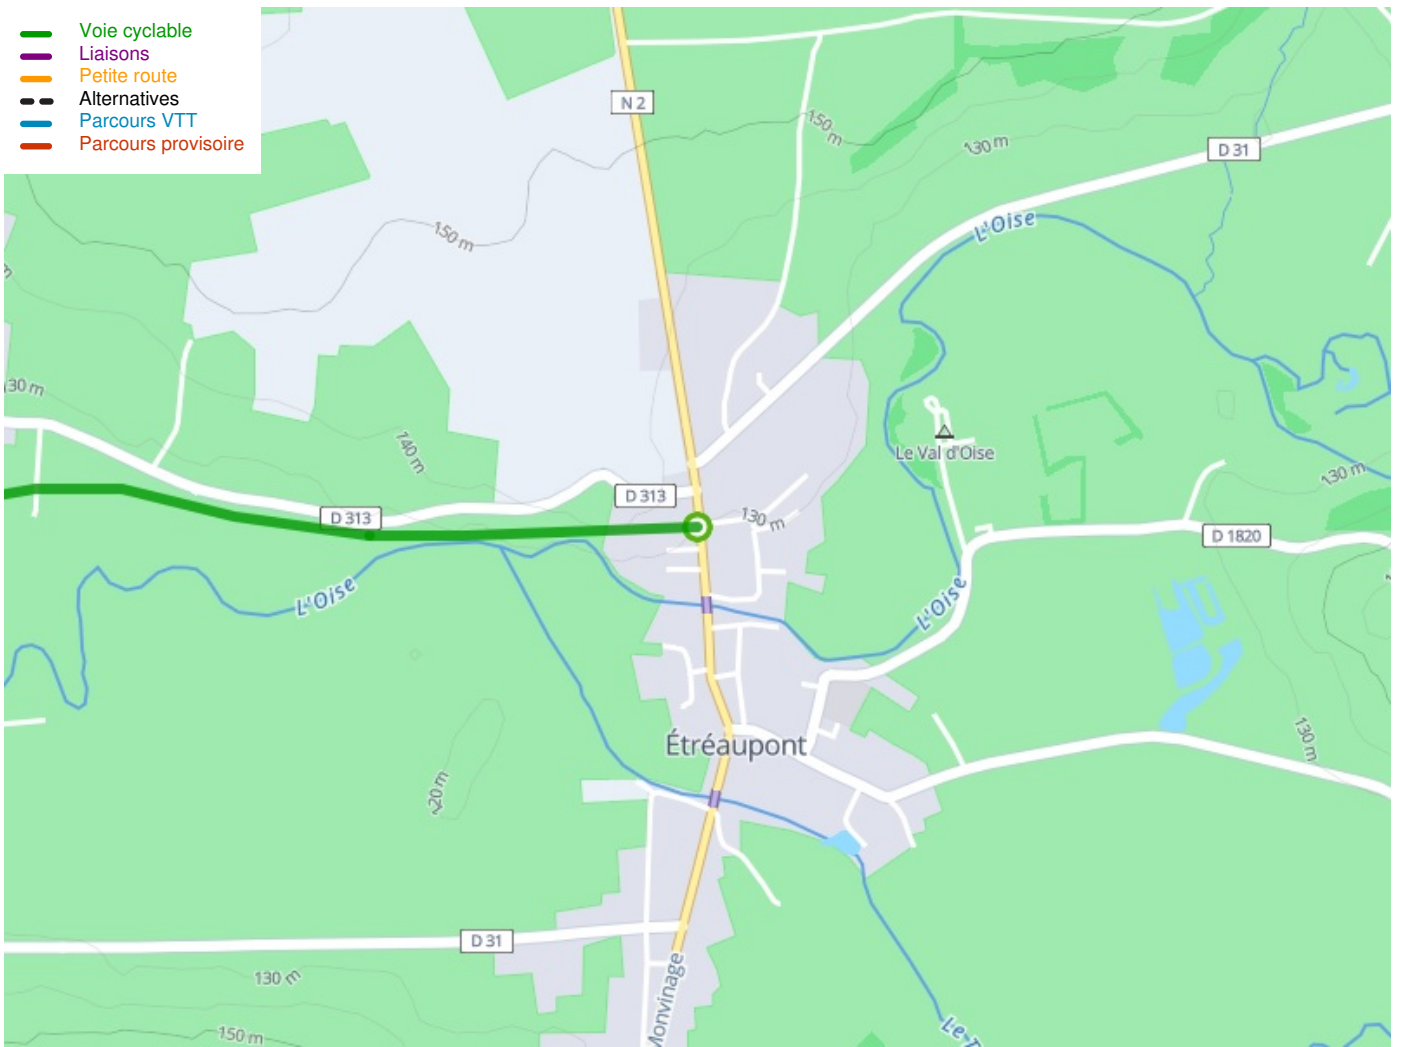

Almost entirely along a greenway, except for a short section on a minor road at the level of Sorbais.
Signposted EV3.
